ANNIE EIMIAKHENA, ACIPM, PMP

An experienced management consultant of over 20 years, Annie Eimiakhena, has been involved in a wide range of consulting assignments. Starting with a career in the ICT industry, Annie was involved with implementing banking applications within the Financial Services industry under Tara Systems Limited and Computer Systems Associates. With her Technology experience, Annie was hired in Accenture to strengthen the Technology Competency, particularly with the firm's thrust on Technology and Outsourcing. Leaving Accenture in 2004, after six years of consulting exposure to various sectors in Manufacturing, Financial Services, Telecommunications and Real Estate, Lohi Consulting came into being.

Lohi Consulting, established over 13 years ago, was a venture taken up by Annie and her team with the firm belief that the company can extend management consultancy services to small and medium sized companies. Armed with this strategy, Lohi Consulting worked with a number of companies in developing winning business plans and corporate strategies that will assist these companies with their growth plans. Lohi Consulting has worked with various organisations in the areas of Strategy, Process, Technology and People Development.

Annie has evolved to be a certified Human Resource practitioner, being an Associate member of the Chartered Institute of Personnel Management and a certified trainer from the Training Accreditation Program (TAP), Coventry which has positioned her to develop the right competencies in workforce development: human resource strategies, recruitment and selection; performance management systems; personnel administration and industrial relations management.

Annie has a Masters in Business Administration from the prestigious Lagos Business School, Pan-Atlantic University. She is also a certified Project Management Professional (PMP).
