

Guylaine Roy, CPA, CA

Club President, BPW of Greater Moncton (Canada)
Senior Manager, Grant Thornton LLP

Guylaine Roy obtained her Chartered Accountant designation in 2011. Her journey led her to become a Senior Manager with Grant Thornton LLP in assurance and business advisory services, where she works as an advisor with privately held businesses and owner-managed businesses. She is passionate about helping entrepreneurs and business owners throughout their business cycles – from start-up to growth to succession planning.

She is also involved with immigrant entrepreneurs in the region and helps newcomers establish a business in Canada.

Guylaine joined her local club (BPW of Greater Moncton) in 2012 where she is now serving as President (2017-2019) and is the New Brunswick (provincial) liaison on the BPW Canada board of directors. Since joining BPW she has been involved in countless committees and initiatives and has worked passionately to promote the organization and to connect women together in order to enhance the world around us.
