

Jenny Gulamani-Abdulla, BA, JD

President of BPW Canada; Founder of Gulamani-Abdulla and Co., Immigration Consulting.

Named One of Canada's Most Powerful Women by the Women's Executive Network in Canada and recently titled "Iconic Woman Creating a Better World For All" at the Women Economic Forum in New Delhi while leading the theme of Migration and Mobility, Ms. Gulamani-Abdulla is the founder of her own Immigration Consulting established 23 years ago. She is a member of the International Bar Association and serves clients worldwide.

Ms. Gulamani-Abdulla was presented the 2012 Distinguished Alumna Award by the University of Calgary, declared "Volunteer of the Year" in 2010 by The United Nations Association of Canada and currently serves on the International Peace and Intercultural Understanding Committee of BPW International.

While Ms. Gulamani-Abdulla presents on Immigration and Citizenship topics around the globe, she is also a sought-after speaker on the topic of leadership at various forums including the Women's Executive Network, Young Women of Power, Every Woman Organization, The Athena Women's Leadership Symposium, University of Calgary's Scholars' Academy and Leadership Exchange Conference as well as BPW clubs across Canada.

Her most recent keynote address in Canada was at the European Union Residence in Ottawa on the topic of "Trade and the Economic & Social Empowerment of Women" where she was invited to speak to Women Heads of Mission or Ambassadors from over a dozen countries around the world.

Ms. Gulamani-Abdulla has been a member of the Canadian Civil Liberties Association, occupies a seat on the Advisory Council for the Quest for Best Campaign at the Bow Valley College including its 1000 Women Rising campaign, and has previously served as Co-Chair of the Professional Services Division at the United Way of Calgary and Area, Legislation committee member of BPW International, and the Advisory Executive Council member of the Women Economic Forum 2017 in New Delhi.