Statement	My working experience span about 40 years. On the issue of doing all I can to bring up the lot of women, this has always been uppermost in my mind and I am still an active member of my various associations. I was introduced to BPW about 8 years ago and have offered my services to fellow members in sorting out their record keeping and tax computation. I have assisted some Women to write Business plans to secure funds for their businesses. I believe I qualify for the position of the Finance Officer as I have worked at all levels of an organization including basic book keeping. I am comfortable with the reading and interpretation of Financial Statements and have been involved in various trainings with the goal of improving financial literacy of women. For my own improvement, I have attended various seminars, conferences etc. at various countries around the world, particularly, the World Accountant's Congress I love travelling and willing to offer my expertise in finance where ever it is required.
Supporting Statement	SUPPORTING STATEMENT FOR IGUEHI ADETIBA NOMINEE FOR THE POST OF EXECUTIVE FINANCIAL OFFICER, IFBPW Iguehi Adetiba is a very strong and active member of one of our major Clubs in Nigeria, Lagos Main Club. She is the current Treasurer of the Club and in addition holds the position of the Chairperson of Environmental Committee of the Club. She has contributed immensely to the growth and development of the

Club in many areas. She is committed, dedicated and always ready to take on additional responsibilities to lift the Club to greater heights.

As a professional accountant, she has trained many members of her Club on record keeping and writing business plans, a skill many of our women in the business community have great need of.

Her experiences as a professional accountant in various organizations leave me in no doubt of her suitability for the position of the Executive Financial Officer of International Federation of Business and Professional Women.

I hereby give full support to her candidacy.

Yinka Ajibola
National President
